As the 2018-2019 SnoX season kicks off, Dees Motorsports is making their way to Minnesota for the 27th annual Duluth National. This year, Neil will be competing for points in the Transition 9-13 class. Neil will be following the ISOC National Racing tour this season, following the circuit to venues across the country. Neil is excited to get back to the track and start battling for a spot on the box this weekend!

During the off season, Neil was given the chance to run some circle track racing in a dirt car, running a Junior sprint. Besides, running a dirt car, Neil spend much of his summer mountain biking, kayaking, and working out.

Neil and the team at Dees Motorsports would like to express our gratitude to these great sponsors for everything they do for us throughout the year! A big thank you to: Herc-U-Lift, Anderson's Pure Maple Syrup, Woody's Traction, FLY Racing, C&A Pro Skis, Load Lifter, Arctic Cat, Sunoco Race Fuel, Triple 9 Optics, Outlaw Wraps, and Powermadd.

We are also proud to have such astonishing support from local businesses in our hometown., including, Red's Auto, Auvinen's Service Center, Sunday Lake Market, Jerry T. Synkelma, Rovelsky's, Wausau Homes, Brite Spot, Quality Collision, Chub and Sandy's, and Rigoni's Bakery.
