KENNY WALLACE WILL HAVE ONE SWEET RIDE FOR TALLADEGA

Wallace will drive the No. 28 Anderson's Maple Syrup Chevrolet in Saturday's Aaron's 312 NASCAR Nationwide Series event at Talladega Superspeedway.

Monroe, NC (April 19, 2010) – Kenny Wallace will have one sweet ride for Saturday's Aaron's 312 NASCAR Nationwide Series race at Talladega Superspeedway. Wallace will be driving the No. 28 Anderson's Maple Syrup Chevrolet at the famous 2.66 mile track. "Anderson's Maple Syrup sure tastes good on my pancakes," said a smiling Wallace. "And I want to thank Steve Anderson for his continued support of our racing program."

"We at Anderson's Maple Syrup are thrilled to continue our racing relationship with Jay Robinson Racing and Kenny Wallace," said Steve Anderson, owner of Anderson's Maple Syrup. "I can't think of a better way to end a successful syrup season than to be on Kenny's car."

You can follow Kenny Wallace and the Anderson's Maple Syrup No. 28 Chevrolet all weekend long on Kenny's Facebook and Twitter pages.

About Anderson's Maple Syrup:

For over 80 years, Anderson's Maple Syrup has provided Midwestern grocery stores, bakeries, butcher shops, and specialty shops with quality maple syrup. In 1931, Paul Anderson first shared the distinct taste of Wisconsin's Northwoods in the tins of his delicately sweet maple syrup.

Three generations later, Steve Anderson and the Anderson family carry on its sugar making heritage by bottling pure maple syrup from the same sugarbush their grandfather tapped for so many years. A healthy all-natural delicacy, authentic maple syrup is a nutritious, low-calorie alternative to artificial sweeteners and maple-flavored syrups.

From its roots in Cumberland, Wisconsin, Anderson's Maple Syrup can today be found in grocery stores and specialty shops across the country. For more information log onto www.AndersonsMapleSyrup.com.
