

Tyler Reddick and the TAME the BEAST Team Capture Solid Second-Place Finish to Kick Off the Round of 8

FINISH	2nd
START	4th
POINTS	3rd

We're all trying to lock ourselves into Homestead, and we just came up one spot short today. Obviously, we would have rather won today and been done with it, but we'll now focus on Texas. Our No. 2 TAME the BEAST Chevrolet was just a little too loose all day and it seemed like it wouldn't tighten up no matter what we did, so that's something we'll have to work on. I'll talk to Cole (Custer) before the next race and we'll sort out our issues. Our emotions run high when everything is on the line like this and both of us have a lot to lose. If we take each other out of the race, neither one of us will make it to Homestead and we both deserve to be there."
