After facing some challenges and trying to figure out the new sled in Duluth, the boys decided to head to Hill City, MN for the ISOC regional to get some valuable seat time. After using the morning races for testing, the boys focused on the afternoon Transition 8-12 races. In his heats, Neil went 3-3 which qualified him 6th for the final. In the final, Neil ran hard, finishing 4th out of 16 riders and just a short distance behind the 3rd place rider. Neil was thrilled about the progress that they made with the setups that day and excited for the rest of the season! Next up, is Ironwood on December 15th.
